Australian Market Update

Japan surges on BoJ hopes as Asia slumps

Japanese stocks surged today, while the rest of Asia floundered, on the yen weakening from a one-month high against the dollar as the Bank of Japan began a two-day policy meeting. Japan's Nikkei-225 index rallied 3.0%, ending two days of losses, amid expectations that the BOJ's new governor will deliver on promises to end years of deflation and stagnant economic growth. More regionally, stocks were weighed down by geopolitical risk after South Korean workers were refused entry to an industrial park jointly run by North Korea for the first time since 2009. On the local market, gold companies led miners 1.9% lower as gold futures fell the most in five weeks after Societe Generale said it sees a "bubble" in the market. Northern Star (ASX: NST), St Barbara (ASX: SBM) and Medusa Mining (ASX: MML) fell 11%, 9.8% and 9.6%, respectively. As an unsurprising aside, Glen Stevens was reappointed as the RBA's governor for a further three years.
